American Vampire by Scott Snyder - Books on Google Play

Scott Snyder's tale is brought to life in a way that is both episodic, with each issue filled with pieces of his vampire mythology, and operatic, building those pieces into a tapestry of modern mythology. That he has done this consistently over five volumes now is a staggering feat.

American Vampire Vol. 5: Snyder, Scott, Albuquerque ...

The 1950s saw the rise of the American teenager as a concept, and that's what Scott Snyder hits in this volume of his epic undead romp through the history of the country. Yes, there are two other stories here: a two-issue story of a pre-vampire Skinner Sweet and his adopted brother Jim Book, and a two-issue story to follow up on a new American vampire and introduce werewolves/racism/doo-wop to Snyder's world.

American Vampire, Vol. 4 by Scott Snyder

I suspected this before, but volume 2 in the American Vampire storyline confirms what has now become an inalienable truth: Scott Snyder is a bad ass. And so are his vampires. In volume 1, we were introduced to Skinner Sweet, the first American Vampire whose accidental creation proved to be a blow against the old school European vampires; Sweet is faster, stronger, and unlike any breed of ...
