It's a cute story filled with imagination and mixes two of his favorites - Fly Guy and that crazy world of zombies/Frankenstein/mad scientist. It was a quick read but was good enough for his age level- not too long to be boring. He enjoys in both when I read it to him and when he practices reading it himself.

You might have heard of Andrew from the many fly patterns he has designed, like the Hippy Stomper. I interviewed Andrew back in 2017 and he has always been a very nice guy and willing to help with anything. Last Saturday Andrew unfortunately had suffered a severe stroke that has him hospitalized at the moment.

Fly Guy follows the adventures of a not-so-common house fly and his owner, Buzz. My son's favorite book of the series is "Fly Guy and the Frankenfly", in which Fly Guy is turned into a version of Frankenstein's monster. Also perfect for Halloween.
